

All Are Welcome Gala a Success

Belleville, New Jersey – (May 3, 2018) – From Left: Msgr. Robert Fuhrman, Catholic Charities Chairman of the Board, Elaine Quijano, Mistress of Ceremonies, Cardinal Tobin, and John Westervelt, Catholic Charities CEO prepare for the Gala festivities at Nanina's in the Park on May 3rd.

Over 320 attended the All Are Welcome Gala to help benefit the social service programs of Catholic Charities. Cardinal Tobin was honored as the 6th Archbishop of Newark, with a special video tribute and a celebration of his birthday.

Additionally, Community Service Awards were presented to several partners who have helped advance the mission of our organization, including Goya Foods, St. Rose Of Lima (Short Hills), St. Cassian (Upper Montclair), St. Anastasia (Teaneck), St. Teresa of Calcutta (Montclair), Sacred Heart (Bloomfield), St. Joseph (Maplewood), and Our Lady of Sorrows (South Orange).

A very special thanks to all the sponsors and donors listed below who helped make the night a tremendous success
