

February 25, 2020 - Domus Corporation held the Groundbreaking Ceremony for St. Paul the Apostle Senior Residence in Edison on February 25, 2020, a 42-unit affordable housing apartment building for independent senior citizens. There to help celebrate the event were (from R to L): John Westevelt, President of Domus Corporation; Annemarie C. Uebbing, Director, Community Planning and Development Division, US Department of Housing and Urban Development; The Most Reverence James F. Checchio, Bishop of the Diocese of Metuchen; Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Newark; Gary Hoagland, President of the Metuchen Community Services Corp.; Edison Council President Joyce Ship-Freeman; Freeholder Director Ronald G. Rios; John Canon, President, Community Preservation Corp.; Sean O'Hagan, Sr. Underwriter / Associate Originator, Enterprise Housing Credit Investments; and, Michael K. Staton, Vice President, Mortgage Officer, The Community Preservation Corporation.

All 42 units in the St. Paul The Apostle Senior Housing project will be reserved for persons 62 years of age or older with low incomes. Of the 42 units in the project, 11 units will be reserved for seniors who are homeless. The building is expected to be complete in early 2021.

